Local Couple's Act of Love Continues Forever

In the uncertain days of 1942, a petite attractive young lass moved to Seattle, WA after attending the University of Montana. A vicious war had engulfed the world. Yet, while fighting for freedom off Alaska's coastal waters, a tall young Army Air Corps Officer met and fell in love with this remarkable woman.

Sounds like the synopsis of a movie starring Maureen O'Hara and John Wayne. Unlike the two characters from the silver screen, these people really did meet and fall in love during the struggles of World War II.

Mary McLaughlin was born and raised in Anaconda, MT. Her mother was a telegraph operator before marrying her mining engineer husband who helped develop the copper industry in Montana.

William A. Hambelton was born in Tieton, WA to a family whose roots go back to the pioneers who settled Central Washington.

Bill and Mary Hambelton married at the Emergency Rescue Boat Station in Avila, CA in 1945. Bill continued in the Air Force until 1964 when the family moved back to Central Washington. Mary died in 2005 of Alzheimer's after celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary.

Before Mary's death at 86, the Hambelton's set up a perpetual fund with the Central Washington Catholic Foundation to benefit Catholic college students at Yakima Valley Community College.

In a very real way, their love for each other and their desire to help educate Catholics in Central Washington will live through the William A. and Mary M. Hambelton Educational Fund.

Can the Catholic Foundation help you arrange a perpetual fund to assist a Catholic need in Benton, Chelan, Douglas, Grant, Kittitas, Klickitat, and/or Yakima counties? We would be honored to name a fund after you or a loved one.

La Condecoración Francis Eugene Cardinal George estimula y honra a los miembros de la Comunidad Católica de Washington Central cuyas vidas y realizaciones reflejen las tres características propias de un espíritu de servicio: es decir su capacidad de Compartir el Propio Tiempo, los Talentos Personales y los propios Bienes. El Board of Trostees de la Fundación Católica de Washington Central otorga esta condecoración a la persona o personas quehayan consagrado una buena parte de su tiempo y que hayan dedicado sus talentos y una cantidad apreciable de sus bienes para el desarrollo de otras personas.
