for their service to the Board.

So far this year, the Central Washington Catholic Foundation (CWCF) received three major gifts totaling $108,549.50. The money goes to start two new named funds and strengthen a third fund.

Dr. & Mrs. Thomas D. Mahony, of Richland, added to their Thomas & Nancy Mahony Fund with a donation of $50,000.00. This fund benefits seminarian education in Central Washington. As of September 30, 2007, their named fund totaled $178,927.73.

Area Catholics united to start the Juana C. Sevilla Memorial Fund with donations totaling $33,344.74. This new fund is named after the late mother of Bishop Carlos A. Sevilla, S.J. and will also benefit seminarian education.

After the death of their father Mr. Larry Jacobs, his sons teamed up to start the Lawrence C. & Lillian L. Jacobs Fund with $25,204.76. This fund will benefit teachers' continuing education at Christ the King School in Richland, WA. The brothers see this fund as a way of remembering their parents and the brothers' own grade school experiences while helping future students.

As with all our named funds, the interests and dividends from CWCF investments go to area Catholic works in our seven Central Washington counties.

The CWCF is an independent nonprofit with the sole purpose of enhancing philanthropically the greater Catholic Community. It is not affiliated with any hierarchical church and receives no church donations.

Muy Generosas Donaciones Fortalecen la Obra de la Fundación

Encotrándonos ya casi a fines del año, la Fundación Católica de Washington Central recibió tres donaciones maravillosas que suman un total de $108.549.50. El dinero tiene como finalidad iniciar dos nuevos fondos y fortalecer un tercero.

El Dr. Thomas D. Mahony y su esposa Nancy, de Richland, acrecentaron el Fondo Thomas y Nancy Mahony con una donación de $50.000.00. Este fondo está orientado a la formación de los seminaristas en Washington Central. El día 30 de septiembre el Fondo tenía un total de $178.927.73.

Un grupo de Católicos de esta área del estado se unieron para comenzar el Fondo Juana C. Sevilla con donaciones por un total de $33.344.74. Este nuevo fondo lleva este nombre para honrar la memoria de la Madre del Obispo Carlos A. Sevilla, S.J. y estará también destinado a la formación de los seminaristas.

Después de la muerte de su padre el Sr. Larry Jacobs, sus hijos se unieron para comenzar el Fondo Lawrence C y Lillian L. Jacobs con un capital de $25.204.76. Este fondo fortalecerá la educación continua de los maestros de la Escuela Cristo Rey en Richland, WA. Los hermanos Jacobs consideran que este fondo es una forma maravillosa de honrar a sus padres y de revivir sus experiencias como estudiantes al tratar de ayudar a otros futuros estudiantes.

Como con todos nuestros fondos ya mencionados, los intereses y dividendos de las inversiones de la CWCF están destinados para las obras Católicas en todos los siete condados de Washington Central.

La CWCF es una Fundación independiente, sin fin de lucro, que tiene como su único objetivo fortalecer con sus ayudas filantrópicas la Amplia Comunidad Católica. No está afiliada a ninguna Iglesia Jerárquica y no recibe donaciones de la Iglesia.
