Baby Grows Healthier After Heart Surgery

Many have asked how Nathan Blaine Carr was doing after open-heart surgery. Nathan was featured in our last issue and is the third child of Blaine and Rachel Carr of the Tri-Cities.

Nathan underwent open-heart surgery to fix "the transposition of his major vessels," according to his father, Blaine Carr. The 8 lb. 2oz. infant had been air evacuated to Sacred Heart Medical Center in Spokane the night of his birth.

"Nathan is doing just fine," said Mr. Carr. He is growing and being a normal baby boy. "Now we would like him to just sleep through the night."

Mr. Carr works for Petersen Hastings in Kennewick and prepares the quarterly numbers for the Foundation.

Foundation Accepts Nominations For Lifetime Achievement

Anyone can be nominated for the Francis Eugene Cardinal George Medallion award. A good nominee represents a lifetime commitment to the values and principles exemplified in the Central Washington Catholic Foundation's mission statement. They do not have to be a donor of the Foundation to be considered.

The members of the Board of Trustees are the sole judge of this award and their decision is final. All nominations must be received on or before January 31, 2006.

Durante nuestro retiro anual del otoño en Wenatchee, nos complació escuchar al Rev. Patrick J. Howell, S.J., un jesuita y el Decano de la Escuela de Teología y Ministerio de Seattle University. Nos conducía por un reflexión excepcional sobre nuestra propia vocación para servicio en relación a la vida de San Ignacio de Loyola. Su estilo interesante y claro dominio del tema nos mantenía absortos. No sólo era encantador e informativo; ¡era divertido!

En nuestra reunión de negocios durante el retiro, la Junta unánimemente aceptó la aplicación del Honorable John A. Rossmeissl, de Yakima, como el miembro más nuevo de la Junta de Fideicomisarios. El Sr. Rossmeissl no es el primer juez nombrado a la Junta. El Honorable Philip M. Raekes (Jubilado), de Kennewick, ha sido un fideicomisario por tres años. Estoy deseando escuchar al Sr. Rossmeissl expresa su entendimiento único de los asuntos que tratan de la Iglesia y el Estado.

At our third annual fall retreat in Wenatchee, we were pleased to listen to the Rev. Patrick J. Howell, S.J., a Jesuit and the Dean of the School of Theology and Ministry at Seattle University. He led us through a remarkable reflection on our own call to service in relationship to the life of St. Ignatius of Loyola. His interesting style and clear command of the subject matter kept us all engrossed. He was not only charming and informative – he was entertaining!

At our business meeting during the retreat, the Board unanimously accepted the application of the Honorable John A. Rossmeissl, of Yakima, as the newest member of the Board of Trustees. Mr. Rossmeissl is not the first judge appointed to our Board. The Honorable Philip M. Raekes, (Ret.), of Kennewick, has been a Trustee for three years. I am looking forward to hearing Mr. Rossmeissl's unique understanding of the issues surrounding Church and State.
